women's club and many friends at her home Saturday evening.

The club is making a special study of Oregon history so Mrs. Geer conceived the idea of giving the club members an opportunity to hear Geo. H. Himes, of the Oregon Historical society.

Mr. Himes talked to the meany greats.

Mr. Himes talked to the many guests for two hours of events which were the starting points of the many im-portant changes in the progress of the civilizing of Oregon, stories which gave glimpses of the unwritten history of a wonderful people who were here, who gave us what we have — the wonderful other, the brave father, the child, all of whom were necessary suffering con-tributors to history.

In addition to the talk by Mr. Himes, Mrs. Dora Dean McCutcheon, of Port-land, had the directing of the classic program rendered by her pupil, Miss. Ruth Nichols.

Mrs. Geer sang two beautiful songs, accompanied by Miss Gladys Emory. Mrs. Geer's singing is always a treat. Miss Nichols' rendition was received with an unusual show of appreciation. Refreshments and musch sociability marked the close of a most enjoyable evening.—Silverton Appeal.
